LOCAL BREVITIES

This is apparently open season for peddlers in Flagstaff.

Wm. Back, the Beaver Creek rancher, was in the city this week.

Laurel Canyon Heights, situated in the mountains and pines. Lots $2 and upwards. Inquire of Echlin.

John Wagner will move the City Meat Market the first of the month into the Aubineau Bros. big grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Black left Monday for Chino Valley. "Bum" will help the Chino Valley Cattle Co. make beef cattle.

The new five room bungalow being built for Con Fredericks, the cattleman, on Birch avenue, is rapidly nearing completion.

Mr. J. L. Daugherty returned Monday from Dallas, Texas, bringing his mother, Mrs. C. C. Daugherty, with him to spend the summer.

Fen S. Hildredth, the land scrip man of Phoenix, went through Flagstaff Monday evening on No. 10 on his way to St. Joseph.

Mr. T. E. Baker, traveling inspector of the Canadian Pacific Railway of Denver, is spending a few days here in the interest of his company.

According to all reports from the finance and other committees, there will be something doing in Flagstaff July 3rd and 4th. Sell your horse and come in.

Buy your California home in Laurel Canyon Heights, thirty minutes from centre of Los Angeles. Lots $200 to $1100 on easy terms. Inquire of Echlin.

Mr. E. MacMillan, general agent of the Columbia National Life Insurance Company, was in the city this week from Phoenix. J. R. Gibson has taken the local agency for the company.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terrible disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted. L. Poole, 2217 California St. Omaha, writes: "Mr. daughter had a very severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time." Refuse substitutes. Will Marlar Pharmacy. Trainmaster Elmer Duffield was in Flagstaff Tuesday with his usual smile that refuses to be wiped out by any small petty annoyances of railroad life.

Autoists without lights on their machines after dark may run into a bunch of trouble when they strike a vigilant officer. It is a good plan also to "honk" when turning short corners else foot passengers may run over and injure the auto.

Al Doyle vouches for the story that coyotes will follow an automobile for miles and miles and even until their feet are worn out by travel. He ventures the opinion that the smell of burning gasoline attracts them, in the hopes that the thing will die sooner or later, thus affording them something to eat.

Notice to Contractors

The Board of Education of the Northern Arizona Normal School will receive bids for the construction of one asphaltum or concrete tennis court, adjoining the court in use on the Normal school grounds at the present time, and repairing present court.

Bids will be opened Wednesday, June 11th, 1913.

We reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

BOARD OF EDUCATION NORTHERN ARIZONA NORMAL SCHOOL, EDGAR A. BROWN, Secy. May 30-June 6.

A slight cold in a child or a grown person holds possibilities of a grave nature. Croup may come on suddenly, bronchitis or pneumonia may develop, severe catarrhal troubles and consumption are possible results. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound nips a cold at the outset, cures croup quickly, checks a deep seated cough, and heals inflamed membranes. Will Marlar Pharmacy. Advertisement.

Wm. B. Mathews, staff photographer of the Santa Fe magazine, has been in Flagstaff the past week securing pictures for that popular magazine.

Prof. H. D. Evans and Mrs. Evans came up the first of the week from Mesa to spend the summer at the Evans summer school north of Flagstaff. The professor is taking a few months leave of absence from school work this year.
